

The Woodson Principles

Multiple Choice Questions

Bob Woodson earned a master's degree in:

- Biology
- Social Work
- Engineering
- Education

Bob Woodson's community development programs focus on bringing in outside experts to find solutions to community problems.

- True
- False

The principle of integrity (complete honesty) helps people trust you and want to work with you.

- True
- False

Which of the following does NOT describe a Woodson Principle?

- Making it easier for people to get help
- Working with people who live in the area you are seeking to improve
- Learning from those with a positive attitude
- Hiding your past problems

The principle of Witness says that the best people to help someone with a problem are:

- People who have been through similar problems - and overcome them
- People who have read about the problem

According to the Woodson Principles the best way to improve a situation is to study all of the ways things have gone wrong in the past.

- True
- False

The Woodson Principles

Multiple Choice Questions with ANSWERS

Bob Woodson earned a master's degree in:

Biology

Social Work

Engineering

Education

Bob Woodson's community development programs focus on bringing in outside experts to find solutions to community problems.

True

False

The principle of Integrity (complete honesty) helps people trust you and want to work with you.

True

False

Which of the following does NOT describe a Woodson Principle?

Making it easier for people to get help

Working with people who live in the area you are seeking to improve

Learning from those with a positive attitude

Hiding your past problems

The principle of Witness says that the best people to help someone with a problem are:

People who have been through similar problems - and overcome them

People who have read about the problem

According to the Woodson Principles the best way to improve a situation is to study all of the ways things have gone wrong in the past.

True

False