

Tulsa: Terror and Triumph

Multiple-Choice Questions

What led to Black Americans first being brought to Oklahoma in the 1830s?

- The Revolutionary War
- The Trail of Tears
- The Civil War
- The Civil Rights Movement

Why did Oklahoma become a “magnet” for Black Americans escaping the South?

- Economic opportunity
- Racial equality
- Failing Reconstruction efforts
- All of the above

Why did many Black residents of Oklahoma and Indian Territory oppose statehood?

- Because it would be too large
- Because of the Civil War
- Because it would reimpose the racial hierarchy they had come to escape
- Because it would increase the number of free states

The name for the successful, thriving Black business district in Tulsa was:

- Main Street
- The Golden Mile
- Black Wall Street
- The Mall

What year did the Tulsa, Oklahoma race massacre occur?

- 1911
- 1921
- 1931
- 1941

Which organization aided survivors in the days and weeks after the massacre?

- The FBI
- The Red Cross
- The Texas Rangers
- The Peace Corps

Tulsa: Terror and Triumph

Multiple-Choice Questions with ANSWERS

What led to Black Americans first being brought to Oklahoma in the 1830s?

The Revolutionary War

The Trail of Tears

The Civil War

The Civil Rights Movement

Why did Oklahoma become a “magnet” for Black Americans escaping the South?

Economic opportunity

Racial equality

Failing Reconstruction efforts

All of the above

Why did many Black residents of Oklahoma and Indian Territory oppose statehood?

Because it would be too large

Because of the Civil War

Because it would reimpose the racial hierarchy they had come to escape

Because it would increase the number of free states

The name for the successful, thriving Black business district in Tulsa was

Main Street

The Golden Mile

Black Wall Street

The Mall

What year did the Tulsa OK race massacre occur?

1911

1921

1931

1941

Which organization aided survivors in the days and weeks after the massacre?

The FBI

The Red Cross

The Texas Rangers

The Peace Corps